Dated this the 18th day of August, 2007.

JUDGMENT

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner for quite some time yesterday and on the basis of further deliberations today and having regard to the entire fact situations, it is directed that if the petitioner deposits an amount of Rs.8 lakhs within two weeks and moves the Government, the Government may consider giving him some facility to pay off the remaining outstandings within a further shortest possible period of time, by way of instalments or otherwise, so that if the Government decides to let him carry on with the activity, he could be provided an opportunity to do so. The Government will also consider the petitioner being given possession of the premises on payment of the aforesaid Rs.8 lakhs or any further amount that the Government may decide.

The writ petition is disposed of in the above terms.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
JUDGE.
